Dignity of Clients

In keeping with the high level of ethical practice and excellence in service delivery, the Powell River Action Centre Society Food Bank Policy on the Dignity of Clients is as follows:

1) The Organization will never exploit clients.
2) The Organization will always use sensitivity in describing those it serves. This includes in graphics, images and/or text.
3) The Organization will always fairly represent the needs of the client and how those needs will be addressed.

The Organization firmly believes that the dignity of the client is of paramount importance.

The organization manager and board chair will be able to verify that this policy exists and is adhered to.
