Fundraising Practices Policy

The Powell River Action Centre Society adheres to ethical fundraising policies.

All fundraising practices on behalf of the organization will be conducted with the highest level of integrity and excellence and must be:

- Truthful and not make claims that are misleading or cannot be upheld
- Accurately describe the organization's activities
- Disclose the following:
    - The organization's name
    - The purpose for which the funds are being requested
    - The organization's donation receipting policy, including the minimum amount for which a donation can receive a receipt
- Disclose on request whether the individual or entity seeking donations is a volunteer, employee, or contracted third party.

This policy will be available for anyone to see with regard to fundraising practices. A hard copy is kept in the office and the policy is available on the website.
