Policy 2024

Independent Advice

The Powell River Action Centre Society Food Bank conducts business with the highest ethical and operational values of excellence.

As such, the organization will encourage any donor to seek independent advice when:

1. The proposed donation is a Planned Gift upon death,
2. If the organization believes that the proposed donation will adversely affect the donors':
    a. Financial position
    b. Taxable income
    c. Relationship with their family members

This policy will be relied on for all donations. The Powell River Action Centre Society Food Bank will not accept major donations if it believes any of the above are applicable or if the donor of a planned gift has not sought out independent advice. Independent advice will be accepted from a financial professional and will need to accompany all major personal donations. The Food Bank Manager and Board Treasurer will work with the donor to ensure no adverse effects will be felt by the donor as a result of the donation. This policy does not affect corporate donations.
